

OE Hong Kong Chapter Committee Members

Dr Peter Chee (Fa 1985-1987) Joint Medical Society Head

Peter is a Specialist in Emergency Medicine. He obtained his MBBS degree from The University of Hong Kong in 1992, and the degree of MSc (Health & Hospital Management) from University of Birmingham in 2008. Peter became the Head of A&E Department of St. John Hospital in 2004 and was appointed as their Deputy Hospital Chief Executive in 2017.

Peter is active in coaching doctors. He is currently the Training Supervisor and Fellowship Examiner of Hong Kong College of Emergency Medicine. He also teaches various Wilderness Medicine Courses on a regular basis.

He is interested in playing Erh Hu, piano and vocal singing. He is married to a paediatrician and has eight-year-old twin daughters.

Mr Heng Loong Cheong (Fa 1998-93) Legal Society Head

Heng Loong (HL) is a Partner in the Corporate team, based in the Hong Kong office and the Singapore office of an international law firm DLA Piper. HL's expertise covers all aspects of general corporate and commercial transactions such as public and private mergers and acquisitions, complex corporate re-organisations, equity and debt capital markets transactions, with a particular emphasis on the emerging markets, insurance, technology, transportation and logistics, and retail sectors.

HL is recognised as a leading Corporate/M&A lawyer, including most recently by Asia Pacific Legal 500 2017 who consider him a 'South East Asian expert' for M&A and IFLR 1000, who ranked him as a leading individual in the area of Corporate / M&A in Hong Kong. HL is part of DLA Piper's Asia Insurance practice that is recognised as a leading practice by Asia Pacific Legal 500 2017. Prior to joining DLA Piper in June 2012, HL spent over 15 years in London and Hong Kong at London and New York headquartered international law firms focusing on M&A and complex corporate reorganisations and transactions.

When he is "off the clock", HL loves travelling and enjoying food and wine (particularly Champagne) with his wife, Sonya and spending time with their 8 month old son Marcus. HL also appreciates Chinese and Asian antiquities including Gandharan sculptures.

Mr Richard Chow (Fa 2001-05) Joint Medical Society Head

Richard was a Fayer boy and graduated from Epsom College at 2005. He was captain of the fencing team, honour guard and a choir member. He graduated from the University of East Anglia and joined one of the largest recruitment agencies; Michael Page in 2013. He specialises in Sales & Marketing and Supply Chain recruitment in the Industrial and Healthcare & Life sciences sector. He is currently recruiting throughout APAC for Travelzoo, an online travel media company as their Talent Acquisition Manager. Richard has connected with OEs throughout his recruitment career and currently helping Epsom College to establish their first HK chapter in Hong Kong.

Mr Ken Ho (H 1986-91) Financial/Property Society Head

After leaving Epsom, Ken studied at the London School of Economics and graduated with a BSc in Actuarial Science and an MSc in Information Systems. He began his career at the Prudential Group in London, working in the Insurance and the Asset Management divisions, and became a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries in 1999. Ken joined Goldman Sachs and relocated back to Hong Kong in 2000. He has worked in the Fixed Income and Research divisions within Goldman Sachs, and is currently a Managing Director and heads up the Asia Credit Strategy Research team. Ken is married with two children, and can usually be found on the golf course or football pitch on weekends.

Mr Paul Hubbard-Brown (P 1990-95) Vice President & Property Society

Mr Justin Lau (G 1990-95) President

After leaving Epsom, Justin studied Economics at the London School of Economics. He went to work for Ernst & Young as an accountant before starting a career in investment banking. He was a Managing Director in Equity Research in a 12-year stint, working for Credit Suisse, Lehman, Nomura and Daiwa, taking him from London to Hong Kong to Tokyo. More recently he set up a private equity advisory business, PineHaven Group, specialising in the technology and fintech sectors.

Mr Derek Lee (F 2008-13) Finance/Events Co-ordinator

Derek joined Epsom College in 2008 as an M4. He was a full boarder in Forest House and a table tennis team captain. He eventually went to the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) to pursue his undergraduate studies in Economics. Now he is a International Tax Associate at Deloitte HK.

During his spare time, Derek loves playing chess, badminton, table tennis and Thai boxing.

Mr Kenneth Leung (Fa 1997-02) Business Section

Mr Roland Leung (Wilson 1986-1991) Joint Medical Society Head

Associate Consultant in Medical Oncology, Queen Mary Hospital. Enjoys wine and cooking, can occasionally be found hiking around HK.

Mr Remy Lie Ken Jie (G 1996-1998) Treasurer

Remy is the Senior Vice President of Chow Tai Fook Enterprises Limited - a Hong Kong conglomerate with investments in properties, infrastructure, energy, education, healthcare, technology, media, private equities and public trading.

Remy received his MEng degree in Civil Engineering and MSc degree in Finance from Imperial College London in 2002 and 2003 respectively. He started his investment banking career in Hong Kong, focusing on corporate finance and capital markets transactions. Prior to joining Chow Tai Fook Enterprises, Remy worked at several divisions at Deutsche Bank AG Hong Kong Branch, including corporate advisory group, equity and debt capital markets, and structured finance.

Remy was the former tennis captain at Epsom College and had been awarded Major Colours from the College. He is married with two children.

The Honorable Raymond Sears (R 1946-51) Hon Chairman

A former High Court Judge in Hong Kong for 14 years. One of five 'Sears' who have been through Epsom College.

Mr Anthony Shek (Fayrer 1995-2000) Chapter Member

Anthony is a company director specialising in real estate management. He enjoys football, jogging and fishing.

Mr Henry Yu (G 1994-98) Legal Secretary

Henry is one of the founding partners of his firm. He obtained his law bachelor degree in England and is qualified as a solicitor in both England and Wales and Hong Kong. Henry has also obtained the qualification from the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants.

He was the Deputy Head of Legal Counsel of a major investment bank after he had worked for various international and Magic Circle law firms. He has rich experience in handling legal matters relating to commercial law, corporate and commercial transactions, and foreign investment, including IPO, private equity investment, mergers and acquisitions, and financing.

Over the years, Henry's enthusiasm for legal matters and his insightful views have been affirmed widely by various professional bodies. He is a member of the Technology Committee of the Law Society of Hong Kong, and is also the Hon. Legal Advisor to The Hong Kong Federation of Innovation and Invention, Hon. Legal Advisor to the Institute of Financial Technologists of Asia and Hon. Legal Advisor to the Bitcoin Association of Hong Kong. From time to time, Henry represents the Bitcoin Community at meetings with the Legislative Council members, the HKMA and the FTSB.

Mr Carl Yuen (W 1989-94) Social Events Head

Carl came to Epsom in the summer of 1989, where he joined Wilson House in Rob Worrall's first year as Housemaster. CY was an average student, he ran cross country, swam and did Maths in various school teams, and also made some noise in the school orchestra and choir. In 1994 he went to Imperial College to read Medicinal Chemistry for his Bachelor's Degree, and completed a Master's in Environmental Science (again at Imperial) by 1998, as he studied at the College of Law at the same time. He was called to the Bar in 2000, Lincoln's Inn, and returned to Hong Kong to complete his pupillage. CY was a Vice President of his Lions Club and is also a Past President of the Rotary Club of Hong Kong. He also performed with various bands at the Bloomsbury theatre in London, and at various large-scale venues in Hong Kong as a jazz/rock guitarist. He founded, and still captains one of Hong Kong's strongest dragonboat teams. As a keen motorist, CY was one of HK's most prominent motor-journalists, he raced in the Asia Classic Car Challenge in Sepang, Malaysia, and was also a trackday instructor for some high-end European manufacturers. He is the longest-serving Vice Chairman of the Classic Car Club of Hong Kong, and is the Honorary Curator for the Gold Coast Motor Festival (Hong Kong) and Fullerton Concours (Singapore). He is also invited to regional Concours d'Elegance as a Judge.

Currently he still practises as a Barrister, specialising in Drug Trafficking and Road Traffic Offences. CY also teaches on the Practising Certificate Course at the University of Hong Kong.

He is proudest of his two kids - Jack (7) and Emma (6).

Dr Leonard Yuen (W 1991-1996), MBBS(London), MRCOphth(UK), MPH(Harvard), FRCS(Ed), FCOphthHK, FHKAM(Ophth) Joint Medical Society Head

Eye Surgeon (London 2001, Harvard 2007), private practice in Tsim Sha Tsui & Central

Dr Leonard Yuen studied at Epsom College between 1991 and 1996, excelling in sports and studies. He received the Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award in 1995.

He graduated from UCL Medical School in 2001. After his early residency at Cambridge and Oxford, he continued his specialist training in Ophthalmology in London.

His passion for research took him to Harvard University where he obtained a scholarship for his Master's Degree in Public Health, followed by a Fellowship in Cornea and Refractive Surgery in Beverly Hills, Los Angeles. He has made significant contributions to community, research and clinical care especially in anterior segment diseases. He has won multiple awards internationally and locally.

He currently has private practice offices in Tsim Sha Tsui and in Central. Dr Yuen serves as Honorary Clinical Assistant Professor at HKU and CUHK, and is board director of Harvard Club of Hong Kong. In his free time, he does triathlons and charity work with ORBIS, the Flying Eye Hospital.